

HIROSHIMA & NAGASAKI COMMEMORATIONS

Lantern Float

SUNDAY, AUGUST 5, 7PM

Riverside Drive & 5th Street, Freeport.

A festival for families, with music, face painting, balloons, a speaker and tables of information about peace and justice groups. At dusk we will float three lanterns on the Allegheny. The first will remember those who died at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the second is for peace now and the third will send forth hope that all children will not face war in the future. Sponsored by Freeport Peace Links.

Bechtel, the Nuclear Threat, and Your Community

MONDAY, AUGUST 6, 7PM

Monroeville Public Library, 4000 Gateway Campus Boulevard, Monroeville. A public discussion on the current nuclear crisis and Bechtel, which develops nuclear weapons, pushed for us to go to war with Iraq, and is now opening up a new Navy facility in Monroeville. Featuring David Robinson, Pax Christi Executive Director, who recently visited Iran as part of a US religious delegation.

Film Screening: White Light/Black Rain

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 8, 7PM

East Suburban UU Church, 4326 Sardis Rd., Murrysville.

A new, critically acclaimed documentary featuring fourteen Hiroshima and Nagasaki survivors directed by Academy Award winner Steven Okazaki.
